HYMN SING - Join us for the last Hymn Sing of the year tonight at 7:00 pm. Doors open at 6:00 pm, and offering goes to The Mennonite Children's Choir.

GIVE TO THE ROOF - As we think of year-end giving, please add this to your discernment process: Stumptown's roof needs to be replaced in 2024. While we thought we had more time with our current roof, recent examinations have revealed otherwise. This will be a huge, unplanned expense for our church, so consider ear-marking some of your tithes to this expense.

COMMUNION - Join us for communion next Sunday, January 7!

ZOOK'S PIES AND DUMPLINGS FUNDRAISER - Yvonne Nyce will be taking orders for chicken pies, beef pies, and apple dumplings January 7 to 28. Proceeds benefit the Costa Rica mission trip. Large pies are $14, small pies are $7, and apple dumplings are $5 for a single and $9 for a double. Money is due when orders are placed. Pick-up is Sunday, February 18.

FAMILY NIGHTS - Everyone is invited to the 1st and 3rd Wednesdays, 6:30-8 pm.
January 17 - Kids: Pinewood Derby preparation
Men: "A Man and His Design" Bible Study
Women: If: Table Bible Study - Come to the table and find
God's love displayed to us

MANDATED REPORTER TRAINING - For all adults who work with children and youth here at Stumptown, we are providing safety training on Thursday, January 11, 7-8:30 pm. This session is strongly recommended. Sign up on the info. table.

NOTE: The office is closed Monday, January 1.

SERMON NOTES

AWE - We begin a new sermon series on January 14. What we are in awe of, we imitate. What captures your attention? Often it is something shiny or better than what we have. What if we refocused our attention on what is dynamic and transformational?
