NEW SERMON SERIES - Formed (April 28-May 19)
We all know of athletes who have risen to elite abilities in their sport through deliberate time, effort, and training. Christ-followers are called to an even greater goal: training and excelling in godliness - something that has value for this life and eternity. Throughout Scripture and Church history, God's people have engaged in the call to godly training through a number of practices known as spiritual disciplines. Join us as we explore some of these disciplines, their biblical basis, and their importance in our lives.
